Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen .

Desperately seeking students. Do you find yourself getting home too early on Sundays? Not time for lunch yet? No football games on. Want to fill in that gap with something meaningful? I have just the solution for you and you can impress Laurie with your step count for the day as you make your way to the second floor Walston classroom to join us fellow Misfits! Just like the famous WWII Black Sheep squadron, we’re an amalgamation of those adults who just couldn’t fit in elsewhere but yet are yearning for a better understanding of God’s grace. We share personal experiences and tie them in with thought-provoking explorations of the intricacies of the Bible. If you’re not “hungry for more” as you leave, you’ll at least be even more ready for lunch. So come on and join us. There are no quizzes or tests and I don’t check homework. Class starting time is dependent on when the service is over and how many sea stories I have to share with Marty but trust me, you’ll get your money’s worth. What have you got to lose?

A gift to Chesapeake: On Nov. 19th, Sat., 7pm, Hosted by Great Bridge UMC, "Handel's Messiah Christmas portion will be presented by the Chesapeake Messiah Community Choir. Teachers, students, citizens and guest musicians, unite together to present this beautiful music for the coming Christmas season especially for our community. Free & open to the public! Bring your family & friends. About 60 minutes long, come, be refreshed by this classic, timeless, miraculous work of beauty. Directed by Nick Nespoli of Chesapeake Public Schools. For more info., contact Lynn Hughes (757-482-3635).
